

Person Specification:

	Essential	Desirable
Qualifications/ Education	PhD in Clinical Psychology or cognate field.
Skills/Training	Ability to deliver PG modules in subject area in an engaging and innovative manner.	Chartered Clinical Psychologist status with the British Psychological Society (BPS) Registration with the Health Prevention Council (HPC) UK Licensure/registration with a professional body related to clinical psychology
Experience	Previous experience of University teaching. Previous experience of research publication. Clinical experience or experience of service delivery.	A profile of good quality, recent publications that can be taken forward to local research assessment exercises, and provide spring-board for collaborative work with colleagues in the University.
Personal Attributes	Excellent verbal and written communication skills. Well organised. Prepared to undertake administrative duties. Administratively competent. Team player.	Web / IT literate